The document has been prepared in accordance with the Fair Trading (Funeral Code of Practice) Regulations 2022.

In doing so, we have tried to format it to best assist families in making educated decisions at a time when things can be a little blurry, whilst also adhering to the requirements of the code.

We believe that every funeral should be different, and therefore encourage you to have a discussion with us about how we can best accommodate your requirements.

As always, we are more than happy to assist you in navigating this space, and the process ahead in arranging a funeral.

The Dawsons & Coventry Team

Disclosure

Our primary mortuary facility is located at 120 Federal Street, Narrogin. Cremation services are conducted at facilities operated by the Metropolitan Cemeteries Board within the Perth metropolitan area, the Bunbury Cemetery Board in Bunbury, and the Albany Cemetery Board in Albany.

All prices quoted by Dawsons Funeral Home are inclusive of GST unless otherwise stated.

These apply to services provided during normal business hours, being 9:00am to 4:30pm, Monday to Friday.

Services required outside these hours may incur additional charges.

It is our company policy that full payment is made prior to the funeral date.

Our aim, is to support our families, to give the end of life, as much beauty, care, and respect as the beginning...

The Necessities
